

David M. Ladd, Founder of Ladd Capital Management

David M. Ladd – November 4, 1943 – June 14, 2023

David spent his entire business career within the investment industry. Following graduation from Bethany College in 1966, he joined a prominent Connecticut Bank where he rose through the Trust Division to head the Investment Department. During those years he gained experience through positions such as security trader, security analyst, and portfolio manager. He had earned the professional designation of Chartered Financial Analyst.